

Shelby Miller <https://www.linkedin.com/in/shelbymiller/>

Shelby Miller is a clinical social worker. She graduated from and currently works at New York City. She worked extensively with the New York State Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance (OTDA). Her work experience ranged in 1998-2005 from working in various with state agencies and with the Family Violence Prevention Fund (FVPPF) and a shelter. Additionally, she continues her work in various roles with a state agency in New York State Department of Social Services (DSS).

Shelby Miller has worked in various roles for different state agencies in order to assist the underserved population in need. Her education background is from New York State and she has a Bachelor's Degree in Social Work from the State University of New York at Albany and was the first Black woman to earn her degree.

The New York State Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance (OTDA) is a state agency that provides financial assistance to the underserved population in need. The agency is a state agency that provides financial assistance to the underserved population in need. The agency is a state agency that provides financial assistance to the underserved population in need. The agency is a state agency that provides financial assistance to the underserved population in need. The agency is a state agency that provides financial assistance to the underserved population in need.